Artist Check-in and Check-out Instructions

1. Set-up and Check-in

We will set up the hangings and tables in the evening on Thursday, February 16th (artist check-in is NOT available on Thursday). If you are in town, please feel free to come and help. Artist check-in will be held in the Art Show area of the Back Bay Ballroom from noon to 6 p.m. on Friday. Please try to arrive early in the afternoon; if you cannot arrive before 6 p.m., send your art with an agent. The show will open to the public at 8 p.m., so it is crucial that all artwork, for both the Print Shop and the Art Show proper, arrive by 6 p.m. on Friday. No other arrangements will be allowed without prior permission. If you are late and have not made special arrangements with us, we may resell your space.

Check-in Procedure (noon to 6 p.m., Friday, February 17th):

When you sent in your entry form, you indicated whether you or an agent would be bringing your work to the show and who would be removing any unsold artwork from the show after closing. Please notify us immediately if this has changed.

Come to the entrance of the Art Show area of the Back Bay Ballroom during Check-in hours. A staff member will check you against our master list (please do have ID with you) and give you Check-in Instructions, an Artist ribbon, a coupon for a free drink at the reception Friday evening, and a ballot for the popular-vote Art Show awards. You may bring a friend or two to help you hang your art. Please bring ONLY your own work into the Art Show. Do NOT have work by others in your portfolio or swap pieces with other artists in the art show. No artwork (except your own pieces which have not been entered) will be allowed to leave the show without special permission.

You may check in to the Art Show before you register for the convention.

Please read the Check-in Instructions carefully.

An Art Show area supervisor will show you your space in the show and answer any questions.

Since our staff is limited, we request that you hang your own work. Helpers will be available to supply hanging hardware and some repair materials. Please be nice to our helpers. They are all volunteers doing this because they enjoy it.

When all your work is hung, recheck your Master Sheet. (Our helpers can assist you with this.) Your copy of your master sheet will be your receipt for all work entered, so if you have an NCR (two-part) form make sure that both copies are legible.

Find an area supervisor to check your master sheet against your artwork. The supervisor will examine the bid sheets, compare titles and entry numbers, and check the back of every piece to ensure correct identification. (You must write your name, address, and the title and number of each piece on the back of that piece. This eliminates confusion if a piece becomes separated from its bid sheet.)

After any errors have been corrected, the supervisor will sign your master sheet. Your artwork is not checked into the art show until the filled-out master sheet has been signed by a supervisor. You are not permitted to leave anything in the Art Show except artwork which has been entered and signed for. We have no space to store or secure carrying cases or packing crates. If you do leave something behind, it is entirely at your own risk.

To enter items in the Print Shop, fill out the Print Shop master sheet and list the title, price, and number of copies of each item entered. Each item will be assigned an ID, and all copies of the item must have a tag with this ID and the price attached to them. After you have done this, it will be checked by a Print Shop supervisor who will sign the master sheet and give you a copy as your receipt. We will hang one copy of each print and store the remainder.

Relax. Once your paperwork is done, you have no further responsibilities to the Art Show until Sunday afternoon, when you must pick up your unsold work (if any). In the meantime, enjoy the convention. We expect to have a strong art-related program and to provide opportunities for artists to make contact with publishers.

2. Art Show Reception

We will hold an open reception on Friday evening, beginning at 10:00 p.m.

3. Artist Pick-up

You must remove your unsold art between 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. on Sunday. If you must leave before that, let us know as soon as possible so that we can try to arrange for you to pick up your unsold art between noon and 1 p.m. Arranging pickup before 1 p.m. is difficult for us, and it is not possible to pick up art before noon (when written bidding ends).

To pick up your unsold art, you must first fill out an Artist Check-Out sheet (or a Tally Sheet) for the pieces you are taking (name, artist number and a list of the piece numbers of the pieces; agent's name and address needed if an agent picks up work). The check-out sheet will be verified by a check-out clerk. This procedure creates a record of the pieces returned to you; every piece of art, sold or not, is checked out of the show.

PLEASE NOTE: We do not all know every artist on sight. Please be prepared to show some kind of ID (preferably photo) to the check-out clerk.

4. Payment

We will send a full accounting of, and a check for, your sales about a month after the convention. We can handle a few requests for early payment; if you really need this, ask us before bidding closes at noon on Sunday and we will try to get you a check before you leave.
